DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the amendment of April 18, 2006, previous 112 rejections on claim 18 (as addressed in Paragraphs 5 and 6) are hereby withdrawn.
2. It is to be noted that present claim 18 does not require the presence of a surface active agent because present range for the amount of the surface active agent is an open range (i.e., the present range of "lower than 10 ppm by weight" includes 0 ppm).
3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

5. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Koh et al (US 6,368,771 B1).

In his Example 6, Koh prepares a photoresist composition containing a photoacid generator and a polymer having an acid-labile group. The photoresist composition is spin-coated on a silicon wafer to form a photoresist layer of 0.2 um (200 nm) thickness. Koh's photoresist composition is not said to contain a surfactant. Thus, Koh teaches present invention of claim 18: with respect to present claim limitation "said surface active agent, prior to the formation of said photoresist layer, having been removed as completely as possible by using an adsorbent", present claim language is written in product-by-process claim language (i.e., present claim 18 is not a process claim, in which an active step of removing surfactant(s) by using an adsorbent is positively stated). Since Koh's composition does not contain a surfactant, Koh still teaches present invention of claim 18).

6. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lee et al (US 6,410,670 B1).

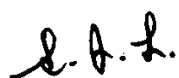

In his Example 33, Lee prepares a photoresist composition containing a photoacid generator and a polymer having an acid-labile group. The photoresist composition is coated on a surface (of a silicon wafer) to form a photoresist layer of 0.3 um (300 nm) thickness. Lee's photoresist composition is not said to contain a surfactant. Thus, Lee teaches present invention of claim 18: with respect to present claim limitation "said surface active agent, prior to the formation of said photoresist layer, having been removed as completely as possible by using an adsorbent", present claim language is written in product-by-process claim language (i.e., present claim 18 is not a process claim, in which an active step of removing surfactant(s) by using an adsorbent is positively stated). Since Lee's composition does not contain a surfactant, Lee still teaches present invention of claim 18).
